Tuesday morning

c. to y^r Dear Dicks.

I am really concerned that you should be so ill as W. Bentley reports this morning. Could you and Miss Dicks come out again. You would be sure to find me out of bed. Sick people are supposed to have delicate stomachs. For my part I should like a slice of pound cake and a glass of wine. I have sent you a trifling quantity of fruit. The cherries are not so fine as I could wish. I hear London is full of the bowel complaint. Has it not reached Hampton? I am truly Yours truly
